2	MR. DOYAGA: Oh, okay. Maybe we're okay. Now
3	calling the case all right, everybody. Let's just check
4	here. Doing track 30, it's QB Wash, LLC, 121-40301. For
5	the record, the Debtor is on the phone with it should be
6	Debtor's principal is on the phone with counsel. There is
7	also Mr. Walsh, identify yourself.
8	MR. WALSH: Tim Walsh from McDermott Will & Emery
9	on behalf of Mr. Silver in his individual capacity.
10	MR. DOYAGA: And, Mr. Rosen, state your
11	appearance.
12	MR. ROSEN: Dave Rosen, Law Offices of Avrum J.
13	Rosen, counsel to the trustee.
14	MR. DOYAGA: Now, Gregory, state your formal
15	appearance, please.
16	MR. MESSER: Gregory Messer for the Debtor, QB
17	Wash, LLC.
18	MR. DOYAGA: All right. And would the principal
19	of the Debtor who is appearing on the phone state your full
20	name?
21	MR. SILVER: Zachary Silver.
22	MR. DOYAGA: Thank you. And what is your
23	relationship to QB Wash?
24	MR. SILVER: Principal.
25	MR. DOYAGA: And are you the sole owner, sole

Page 5 1 shareholder? 2 MR. SILVER: Yes. 3 MR. DOYAGA: Thank you. MR. MESSER: It's actually an LLC, so he's 5 actually the sole member. 6 MR. DOYAGA: Thank you. Thank you, Mr. Messer. 7 And we had a turnover of a bank account balance, check, 8 approximate amount. But I don't know if you discussed this 9 with the principal of the Debtor. The balance on the 10 schedules was much larger. Can you explain that, Zachary, 11 Zach? MR. SILVER: My explanation (indiscernible) is two 12 13 things. On the day that I filed, I ran a payroll for the 14 employees, as I thought it was improper and immoral to not 15 pay them. It was my judgement at the time. That was a 16 significant part of the balance. As well as the fact that 17 certain utility bills were on autopay. So even after the 18 bankruptcy, I believe there was a National Grid charge and a 19 ConEdison charge and things of this nature. Now, I sent 20 over the bank statements to Mr. Messer, and it will clearly 21 show exactly what happened. 22 MR. DOYAGA: Yeah. I think should have asked, are 23 there any creditors represented on the phone in this case? 24 John Giampolo, Rosenberg & MR. GIAMPOLO: Yes. 25 Estis, on behalf of 13877 Queens Boulevard, LLC.

Page 6 1 MR. DOYAGA: Okay. Any other creditors? And do 2 the creditors wish to elect a trustee different than David Doyaga? All right, hearing none, David Doyaga is the 3 trustee. 4 5 All right, Mr. Rosen, would you like to please 6 proceed? 7 MR. ROSEN: Sure. Thank you, David. Good 8 afternoon. My name is Avrum Rosen. I am counsel to the 9 Debtor. 10 MR. DOYAGA: No, no. To the trustee. 11 Trustee, sorry. It's been a long day. MR. ROSEN: 12 I wear many hats. 13 David, do you want to go through your usual stuff and then I'll do it when I'm --14 15 MR. DOYAGA: Well, to be very frank, given the 16 circumstances, we've done a lot of work behind the scenes. 17 MR. ROSEN: Yeah, okay. 18 MR. DOYAGA: I just assume you -- ask your 19 questions. 20 MR. ROSEN: Okay, thank you. 21 Sir, I did receive your bank statements, and I 22 have a couple of just initial questions on them. First, I have a request of you. You sent me over the bank statements 23 24 for approximately two years, and I appreciate that. But the 25 Citibank statements that you sent do not have copies of the

1	checks attached, check numbers. I know on Citibank, because
2	I use them, that if you contact them, they will give you all
3	of the checks at no cost going back at least a year. So I'm
4	going to ask that you make that request of Citibank and get
5	copies of the checks going back as far back as you can
6	without us having to lose weeks doing it, 2004. If you make
7	the request, you'll get at least a year's worth. Okay?
8	MR. SILVER: I can do that.
9	MR. ROSEN: Okay. Thank you. That's my first
LO	request. I have another question for you also. I see that
L1	there are a lot of deposits made up in Mount Kisco. Do you
L2	live in Mount Kisco?
L3	MR. SILVER: Presently, yes.
L 4	MR. ROSEN: Okay. Well, over like the last year
L5	or so have you lived in Mount Kisco?
L 6	MR. SILVER: Since March of last year.
L7	MR. ROSEN: Since March. Do you live in 38 Taylor
L8	Road in Mount Kisco?
L9	MR. SILVER: Presently, yes.
20	MR. ROSEN: Okay. Can you explain for me who
21	well, withdrawn. There is a secured creditor on your
22	business, correct?
23	MR. SILVER: As I understand.
24	MR. ROSEN: Okay. And who is that secured
25	creditor?

	Page 8
1	MR. SILVER: Wash Funding, LLC.
2	MR. ROSEN: And are the principals of that family
3	members of yours?
4	MR. SILVER: I believe the principals are trusts.
5	MR. ROSEN: Okay. Now, are the trusts related to
6	family members of yours?
7	MR. SILVER: Yes.
8	MR. ROSEN: And is this the same trusts that were
9	withdrawn. And when did the security interest come into
10	place, do you know?
11	MR. SILVER: No. I believe the security interest
12	went into place I don't know, I'm sorry.
13	MR. ROSEN: Was it last year?
14	MR. SILVER: Again, if I gave an answer, I would
15	be making it up. I don't know the exact intricacies of when
16	the security interest went into place off the top of my
17	head.
18	MR. ROSEN: Okay. When was the last time that
19	lender advanced any money to the business?
20	MR. SILVER: I don't know.
21	MR. ROSEN: Was it last year?
22	MR. SILVER: Possibly.
23	MR. ROSEN: And who if those funds came in, who
24	would they have come in from?
25	MR. SILVER: I'm not sure.

	Page 9
1	MR. ROSEN: Do you remember receiving any checks -
2	- did you receive any checks or wires directly from family
3	members?
4	MR. SILVER: I don't not that I recall,
5	although that is a possibility.
6	MR. DOYAGA: Whoever that was, please put your
7	phone on mute.
8	MR. ROSEN: Over the past year, did you make any
9	payments to the secured lender?
LO	MR. SILVER: Yes.
L1	MR. ROSEN: And do you recall approximately how
L2	much you paid them?
L3	MR. SILVER: Very approximately, $30,000 over the
L 4	year.
L5	MR. ROSEN: And again, I don't have copies of the
L6	checks. But when you paid them, did you pay them by check?
L 7	MR. SILVER: I did pay them by check.
L8	MR. ROSEN: And were those regular payments? Was
L 9	it like the same amount every month, or did they vary?
20	MR. SILVER: Yes, they were the same amount every
21	month.
22	MR. ROSEN: Do you recall what amount that was?
23	MR. SILVER: It was in the $3,000 (indiscernible).
24	MR. ROSEN: In the $3,000 range? Okay. Thank
25	you. Also going to the checking account, there were a

	Page 10
1	number of checks to an entity called Baar, B-a-a-r, LLC. Do
2	you know who that is?
3	MR. SILVER: Yes.
4	MR. ROSEN: And who is it?
5	MR. SILVER: It's an appraisal firm.
6	MR. ROSEN: And were those payments well, let
7	me rephrase it. And why were you paying an appraisal firm?
8	MR. SILVER: I was paying an appraisal firm
9	because there was a rent reset provision within my lease and
10	I had to elect an appraiser and use his services in order to
11	go through the rent reset process to try to secure a lease
12	for to go through that process for the company.
13	MR. ROSEN: Okay, thank you. And is that also the
14	reason did you have to get a new survey as part of that
15	process also?
16	MR. SILVER: No.
17	MR. ROSEN: Okay. Because there was an $1,100
18	payment to a land surveying company. Do you know what that
19	was for?
20	MR. SILVER: That was for that was that
21	charge, to be forthright, was unrelated to the business with
22	QB Wash.
23	MR. ROSEN: Okay. Is that related to when you
24	were acquiring the residence in Mount Kisco?
25	MR. SILVER: No.

Page 11 1 MR. ROSEN: Okay. But it was unrelated. Okay, 2 thank you. In terms of money that came in, who is Scott 3 Silver? MR. SILVER: My father. MR. ROSEN: And did your father lend you money to 5 6 the business within the last year? 7 MR. SILVER: I'm not incredibly familiar with the 8 organization chart of my family's accounts and finances. So when money came in, and because I needed money to avoid 9 10 filing for bankruptcy sooner than I actually have, I'm not 11 sure if the money came from -- what entity or what account 12 the money came from. 13 MR. ROSEN: Okay. 14 MR. SILVER: I just don't know the interworkings 15 there. 16 MR. ROSEN: Okay. Going back to Mount Kisco. So 17 there were a number of deposits. Obviously the car wash 18 we're looking to see what happened to cash deposits. I do 19 see a number of small deposits being made up in Mount Kisco, 20 I think at an ATM. What was your -- how did you make --21 first of all, was there cash generated from the business, 22 and if so, how did you deposit it, and was it all deposited? 23 MR. SILVER: Cash was generated from the business. Cash was rarely deposited. It was generally used to pay 24 25 employees or vendors.

1	MR. ROSEN: Okay. Approximately what percentage
2	of the business was in cash?
3	MR. SILVER: It's a very hard thing to
4	approximate, but I would say, again, very, very difficult to
5	approximate. Twenty percent to 25 percent.
6	MR. ROSEN: Okay. Did you keep any books and
7	records of these cash transactions?
8	MR. SILVER: No.
9	MR. ROSEN: Now, prior to entering into
10	withdrawn. Were there any other financing either sought or
11	contemplated for the business within the last two years?
12	MR. SILVER: Only a PPP loan I received.
13	MR. ROSEN: Okay. And when did you receive a PPP
14	loan?
15	MR. SILVER: I believe in April or May, I believe.
16	MR. ROSEN: And I don't recall, were they listed
17	as a creditor on your petition?
18	MR. SILVER: They were not formally listed as a
19	creditor on my petition because I had already submitted the
20	loan for forgiveness.
21	MR. ROSEN: And has it been has it been totally
22	forgiven?
23	MR. SILVER: I haven't checked up on it lately,
24	but (indiscernible) it's being forgiven.
25	MR. ROSEN: Now, you were also you were in

Page 13 1 litigation with the landlord, correct? 2 MR. SILVER: Correct. 3 MR. ROSEN: And you retained a firm in White Plains to represent you? 4 5 MR. SILVER: Correct. 6 MR. ROSEN: At any point during your 7 (indiscernible), did you have discussions with them about 8 what's called a Yellowstone injunction? 9 MR. SILVER: I don't recall the exact 10 conversations I had with my attorney. 11 MR. ROSEN: Well, did you ever have a conversation 12 about trying to get any sort of stay or injunction at the 13 beginning of the case? MR. SILVER: Again, I just don't remember the 14 15 exact conversations I had with my attorney. 16 MR. ROSEN: Okay. And when you had communications 17 with them, were they in writing or were they by email or all on the phone? Which were they? Or any combination thereof? 18 19 MR. SILVER: Any combination thereof. 20 MR. ROSEN: Okay. I'm going to ask you to turn 21 over your communications with counsel over the litigation. 22 MR. MESSER: Mr. Rosen, we'll take that request 23 under advisement. I know it's a corporate case and the privilege is waived, but I just want to think about the 24 25 privilege issue a little bit. I anticipate that we'll turn

1	it over, but I just want to ponder it a little bit.
2	MR. ROSEN: Mr. Messer, I would never get in the
3	way of your pondering anything.
4	MR. MESSER: Thank you.
5	MR. ROSEN: In terms of the business, in the last
6	six years well, you started this business in, what, 2015
7	if I recall correctly, correct?
8	MR. SILVER: The business was incorporated in 2015
9	and it was in and I purchased the business and started
10	operating the business on January 8th, 2016.
11	MR. ROSEN: January 8th, 2016. Okay. Since you
12	started the business, have you taken any distributions out
13	of the business?
14	MR. SILVER: No.
15	MR. ROSEN: I went through the bank statements.
16	Were you on salary at the business?
17	MR. SILVER: In late August of 2020, I decided to
18	start taking a salary. I managed to take that salary seven
19	times between late August and early October before it became
20	aware to me that it was financially infeasible to do.
21	MR. ROSEN: Okay. Were you so while you were
22	running this business, how were you living?
23	MR. SILVER: Excuse me?
24	MR. ROSEN: How were you paying for your expenses?
25	Were you taking distributions in cash?

	Page 15
1	MR. SILVER: No.
2	MR. ROSEN: Is this your sole source of
3	employment?
4	MR. SILVER: Yes.
5	MR. ROSEN: So were you so I go back to my
6	question. So how were you paying your bills? Were you
7	paying your bills out of the business? Were you taking cash
8	or were you getting money elsewhere?
9	MR. SILVER: I was getting money elsewhere.
10	MR. ROSEN: From family?
11	MR. SILVER: My wife works and my family works.
12	MR. ROSEN: Okay. All right.
13	David, at this point until I have the checks and
14	the bank statements, I
15	MR. DOYAGA: I understand.
16	MR. ROSEN: Can we continue this, please? Because 17
18	MR. DOYAGA: Yeah, we're going to there's a
19	creditor.
20	MR. ROSEN: Hold on one second. I'm sorry. I may
21	have another question.
22	MR. DOYAGA: All right.
23	MR. ROSEN: Just one follow-up question that I
24	just want to make sure in terms of the litigation that took
25	place. When you retained that firm, were they representing

Page 16 1 the company or were they representing -- also representing 2 you in your individual capacity? 3 MR. SILVER: They were representing the company. 4 MR. ROSEN: Okay. Thank you. At this point we can turn it over. And I'll continue it, David. And when I 5 6 have the checks, I'll have a better idea. 7 MR. DOYAGA: Yeah, I understand. So there was a 8 creditor on the phone. Can you please identify yourself 9 again? 10 MR. GIAMPOLO: John Giampolo, Rosenberg Estis, 11 counsel for 13877 Queens Boulevard, LLC. 12 MR. DOYAGA: Thank you. Do you have questions for 13 the Debtor's principal? 14 MR. GIAMPOLO: None at this time. Well, I would 15 like to reserve the right to ask questions --16 MR. DOYAGA: On the adjourn date? 17 MR. GIAMPOLO: -- following the continuation. 18 MR. DOYAGA: Yeah. All right. So, gentlemen, we 19 are adjourned to April 16. And we're going to have that 20 case at 9:00 a.m. April 16th at 9:00 a.m. Please be on 21 time. It may be the only case on at that time. So that's 22 April 16th at 9:00 a.m. And for now, appearance required. 23 All right? And please provide those checks and whatever 24 documents were requested before so we can review them. And 25 we are adjourned. Thank you. Thank you. Bye bye.

This is a commercial ejectment action, seeking the eviction of a commercial tenant, defendant QB Wash LLC, from the premises located at 138-77 Queens Boulevard and 138-77 87^{th} Avenue, in Queens County, New York on which tenant operates a car wash and automotive lube shop.

Plaintiff landlord commenced this action on September 4, 2020. Defendant tenant filed an answer with counterclaims on October 26, 2020. Landlord now seeks an Order directing payment of prospective and retroactive use and occupancy.

In support of the motion, landlord submits an affidavit of its manager, Ethan D. Wohl. Mr. Wohl affirms, inter alia, that the relevant Lease, entered into in 2010, has a 25-year term that requires tenant, in addition to paying base rent, to reimburse landlord for real estate taxes and insurance and assume full responsibility for maintenance and repairs. Tenant has failed to pay rent since February 2020, resulting in present arrears totaling over $184,000. The monthly base rent for the June 2019 through May 2020 lease year was $17,337 per month. The reimbursable real estate taxes and insurance for 2020 have totaled approximately $94,000. The Lease provides for the base rent to be reset to market rate in June 2020, and sets forth a procedure requiring good faith negotiations between the parties, followed by appointment of party appraisers, followed by appointment of a neutral third party appraiser if necessary. In February 2020, pursuant to the rent reset procedure set forth in the Lease, the parties' principals met twice. Tenant stated that it would need a substantial rent reduction. In March 2020, the parties designated appraisers and exchanged appraisals in late May 2020. The parties' appraisers' divergent valuations triggered appointment of a third, neutral appraiser. In July 2020, landlord accepted tenant's proposal to appoint Steven Schleider. In June 2020, following the parties' failed negotiations over rent arrears, landlord drew down the one-month security deposit it held and sent tenant a notice to replenish the security deposit or face termination of the Lease. Landlord also sent a notice to cure an outstanding Fire Department violation and lapsed petroleum bulk storage registration. Tenant replenished the security deposit and timely cured the outstanding Fire Department violation. In July, landlord again drew down the security deposit and sent tenant a new notice to replenish. Tenant again replenished the security deposit. On August 5, 2020, plaintiff received a Determination of Theft of Services and Cease and Desist Notice issued by the New York City Department of Environmental Protection, finding that tenant had illegally removed DEP's water meter and connected an unmetered water supply. Landlord immediately emailed the notice to tenant. A formal notice to cure was sent on August 6, 2020. On August 10, 2020, landlord sent tenant a second notice to cure, regarding water arrears and an unpaid Fire Department violation. On August 14, 2020, Mr. Schleider rendered his rent reset determination, determining the fair market base rent for the premises to be $21,729, a 25% increase over the prior base rent. Thereafter, the parties' principals met. Tenant offered to purchase the premises for $2 million or pay $14,500 per month base rent. Landlord rejected the offers. Tenant allowed the cure periods provided in the August 6 and August 10 Notices to lapse without attempting to correct the Lease violations specified therein. On August 27, 2020, landlord sent a cancellation notice, which terminated the Lease effective September 3, 2020.

In opposition, Zachary Silver, a member of tenant, submits an affidavit affirming, inter alia, that tenant did not default under the lease as its purpose was frustrated and became impossible as a consequence of the Covid-19 pandemic. Specifically, Mr. Silver points to Paragraph 80 of the Lease, which states that the Lease "is granted subject to the following . . . any other applicable governmental or quasi-governmental requirements". Additionally, Paragraph 9 of the Lease provides that "if any part of the premises is rendered un-tenantable by reason of such damages, the annual fixed rent payable hereunder . . . shall be abated for the period from the date of such damage to the date when such part of the premises shall have been made tenantable". Mr. Silver contends that it was never the parties' intent to pay rent if the premises would remain closed or if car traffic declined to the levels it is now. Mr. Silver further affirms that tenant was barred from operating the property as a car wash, automotive lube and detail shop for at least five months.

A threshold issue is whether Governor Andrew M. Cuomo's moratorium on commercial evictions precludes this action. Executive Order 202.28 states, in relevant part, "[t]here shall be no initiation of a proceeding or enforcement of either an eviction of commercial tenant, for nonpayment of rent". The Executive Order only applies to proceedings and not actions. RPAPL 701 specifies that a landlord-tenant proceeding is a special proceeding. Since this is an ejectment action, rather than a landlord-tenant proceeding, Executive Order 202.28, and the executive orders extending the protections stated therein, does not preclude this action (see CPLR 103[a] & [b]).

Tenant also argues that the notices to cure violated Executive Order 202.8, which tolled "any specific time limit for the. . . service of any. . . notice. . . process or proceeding, as prescribed by the procedural laws of the state". While Executive Order 202.8 does toll procedural laws of the state, it does not address contractual deadlines, including the sending of notices. Tenant further argues that landlord has harassed it with multiple notices to cure and a notice of cancellation. However, N.Y.C. Admin. Code 22-902.b, states that a landlord's lawful termination of a lease shall not constitute harassment. Accordingly, the notices to cure and the commencement of this action were proper.

Turning to whether landlord is entitled to use and occupancy, the "award of use and occupancy during the pendency of an action or proceeding accommodates the competing interests of the parties in affording necessary and fair protection to both" (255 Butler Assoc., LLC v 255 Butler, LLC, 173 AD3d 651, 653 [2d Dept. 2019][internal quotation marks omitted]). Although tenant contends that use and occupancy is awarded only after the expiration of a lease, use and occupancy has been awarded under both existing and expired leases (see Andejo Corp. v South St.

NYSCEF DOC. NO. 59 RECEIVED NYSCEF: 01/15/2021

Seaport Ltd. Partnership, 35 AD3d 174 [1st Dept. 2006]). Additionally, use and occupancy has been awarded where the principal dispute concerned the amount of rent payable (see 255 Butler Assoc., LLC v 255 Butler, LLC, 173 AD3d 651, 654 [2d Dept. 2019][if tenant "is successful at trial and it is determined that [tenant] did not default on its obligations under the lease, [tenant] may be entitled to recover damages, including a refund or a rent credit"]). Even during the Covid-19 pandemic, courts have held that tenants are required to pay use and occupancy (see CP Assoc. LLC v Concourse Plaza Family Dental LLC, 2020 NY Slip Op 33875[U][Sup Ct, New York Cnty 2020]; Rame, LLC v Metropolitan Realty Mgt., Inc., 2020 NY Slip Op 33538[U][Sup Ct, New York Cnty 2020]; Gap v 44-45 Broadway Leasing Co. LLC, 2020 NY Slip Op 32403[U][Sup Ct, New York Cnty 2020]).

Here, the equities support payment of use and occupancy. Tenant has no claim that landlord has done anything to impair tenant's performance under the Lease or use and enjoyment of the premises. Although tenant argues that a partial closure of its business due to the Covid-19 pandemic justifies the non-payment of rent, this Court finds that permitting tenant to remain in possession of the subject premises without paying for its use would be "manifestly unfair" (MMB Assocs. v Dayan, 169 AD2d 422, 422 [1st Dept. 1991]). Moreover, the Court need not adjudicate the merits of whether tenant is entitled to a rent abatement on account of Covid-19 at this juncture (see Estate of Berkowitz, 265 AD2d 249 [1999] [finding that if tenant contends that the base rent does not represent fair valuations of current market rates, tenant's remedy is a speedy trial]).

"In determining the reasonable value of use and occupancy, the rent reserved under the lease, while not necessarily conclusive, is probative" (Mushlam, Inc. v Nazor, 80 AD3d 471, 472 [1st Dept. 2011]; see Andejo Corp. v South St. Seaport Ltd. Partnership, 35 AD3d 174 [1st Dept. 2006]). At this point, the Court sees no reason to divert from the neutral appraiser's values. The rent was set in August 2020, in the midst of the pandemic, by a neutral appraiser who was chosen by tenant, and consistent with the Lease's rent reset process.

Accordingly, based on the reasons stated above, and in the discretion of the Court, it is hereby

SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

This Settlement Agreement is entered into this 28th day of June, 2012, by and between the Maryland State Collection Agency Licensing Board in the Office of the Commissioner of Financial Regulation (hereinafter the "Agency") and LVNV Funding LLC ("LVNV"), and Resurgent Capital Services Limited Partnership a/k/a Resurgent Capital Services L.P. ("Resurgent"), (collectively, the "Respondents"). The Respondents are part of a family of companies under Sherman Financial Group LLC. The Agency and Respondents (the "Parties") consent to the entry of this Settlement Agreement (the "Agreement") as a final resolution of this matter. All paragraphs below are intended to be part of the contractual obligations of the Parties hereto, so far as they may be so construed, and are not mere recitals to this Agreement.

- 1. Pursuant to the Maryland Collection Agency Licensing Act ("MCALA"), at Md. Code Ann., Bus. Reg. ("BR") § 7-101 et seq., the Agency is responsible for licensing and regulating persons engaged in collection agency activities in the State of Maryland (the "State").
- 2. The definition of "collection agency" under BR § 7-101(c) includes, among other things, "a person who engages directly or indirectly in the business of: (1) (i) collecting for, or soliciting from another, a consumer claim; or (ii) collecting a consumer claim the person owns, if the claim was in default when the person acquired it."

- 3. BR § 7-401(a) provides that, "except as otherwise provided in this title, a person may not knowingly and willfully do business as a collection agency in the State unless the person has a license."
- 4. A non-exempt person who acquires consumer claims in default at the time of acquisition (a "consumer debt purchaser"), who then attempts to collect on those debts through litigation in Maryland State courts, is conducting business as a "collection agency" in the State under BR § 7-101(c). This applies regardless of whether the consumer debt purchaser is represented in litigation by attorneys who are also licensed as collection agencies. As such, a consumer debt purchaser collecting debts through litigation in Maryland State courts is required to be licensed as a collection agency under MCALA, and is subject to the regulatory authority of the Agency in the conduct of that litigation.
- 5. A consumer debt purchaser collecting debts through litigation in Maryland State courts also meets the definitions of "collector" under Md. Code Ann., Com. Law ("CL") § 14-201(b) of the Maryland Consumer Debt Collection Act ("MCDCA"), at CL § 14-201 et seq., and of "debt collector" under 15 U.S.C. § 1692(a) of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act ("FDCPA"), at 15 U.S.C. § 1692 et seq.
- 6. Pursuant to BR § 7-308(a), the Agency can bring an action to suspend or revoke the license of a collection agency "if the licensee or any owner, director, officer, member, partner, or agent of the licensee" engages in various prohibited activities, including, among other things, the following: "(3) in connection with the collection of any consumer claim: ... (ii) engages in any illegal or dishonest activities; or (4) knowingly or negligently violates the Maryland Consumer Debt Collection Act."

- 7. Pursuant to CL § 14-202(8) of the MCDCA, "[i]n collecting or attempting to collect an alleged debt," a debt collector (or "collector") may not "[c]laim, attempt, or threaten to enforce a right with knowledge that the right does not exist."
 - 8. The FDCPA provides, in relevant part, as follows:

§ 1692e. False or misleading representations

A debt collector may not use any false, deceptive, or misleading representation or means in connection with the collection of any debt. Without limiting the general application of the foregoing, the following conduct is a violation of this section:

- (2) The false representation of—
 - (A) the character, amount, or legal status of any debt; or

(5) The threat to take any action that cannot legally be taken or that is not intended to be taken.

(10) The use of any false representation or deceptive means to collect or attempt to collect any debt or to obtain information concerning a consumer.

§ 1692f. Unfair practices

A debt collector may not use unfair or unconscionable means to collect or attempt to collect any debt. Without limiting the general application of the foregoing, the following conduct is a violation of this section:

(1) The collection of any amount (including any interest, fee, charge, or expense incidental to the principal obligation) unless such amount is expressly authorized by the agreement creating the debt or permitted by law.

9. Thus, the Agency has the authority to bring actions under MCALA against persons engaged in various prohibited activities in connection with the collection of any consumer claim, including for violations of the FDCPA pursuant to BR § 7-308(a)(3)(ii) (engaging in illegal activities), and for violations of the MCDCA pursuant to BR §§ 7-308(a)(3)(ii) and 7-308(a)(4). Such authority extends to both litigation-related collection activities, as well as to non-litigation (i.e., "traditional") collection activities. Further, pursuant to BR § 7-205 and Md. Code Ann., Fin. Inst. ("FI") § 2-115(b), such enforcement actions could result in an order to cease and desist, suspension or revocation of Maryland State collection agency licenses, civil money penalties for each violation of MCALA, the MCDCA, and FDCPA (as violations of MCALA), an order to provide restitution to affected Maryland consumers or to take other affirmative action to correct the violations, or any combination of the aforementioned sanctions.

- 10. LVNV is a consumer debt purchaser that, on February 18, 2010, became duly licensed as a Maryland collection agency, as that term is defined in BR § 7-101(c), receiving collection agency license number 04-5594 for its business location at 625 Pilot Road, Suite 3, Las Vegas, Nevada 89119. Resurgent is a collection agency that services the consumer claims owned by LVNV and other business entities. At all times relevant to the facts set forth herein, Resurgent has been duly licensed under MCALA as a Maryland collection agency, currently holding collection agency license number 04-2955 for its business location at 15 S. Main Street, Suite 600, Greenville, South Carolina 29601.
- 11. On October 25, 2011, the Agency issued a Summary Order to Cease and Desist and Summary Suspension of Collection Agency Licenses against Respondents and certain affiliated parties of the Respondents (the "Summary Order") after finding, in the Agency's opinion, reasonable grounds to believe that the Respondents and their affiliated parties had engaged in unlicensed collection agency activities and other violations of MCALA, and were violating the provisions of the MCDCA and the FDCPA referenced above, (collectively the "Alleged Violations"), and upon determining that action under FI § 2-115 and Md. Code Ann., State Gov't ("SG") § 10-226(c)(2), was appropriate.

- 12. The parties subsequently entered into an Interim Settlement Agreement and Modification to Summary Order to Cease and Desist and Summary Suspension of Collection Agency Licenses on November 17, 2011 (the "Interim Agreement"), pursuant to which Respondents were permitted to resume certain collection activities.
- 13. This Agreement is intended to resolve all administrative, judicial, or other legal actions between the Parties, as well as any such action which the Agency brought, or could have brought, against Respondents or Respondents' predecessors, successors, subsidiaries, affiliates, parents, shareholders, current or former directors, officers, employees, or assigns prior to the execution of this Agreement, relating to those issues and pending collection matters which formed the basis for the Summary Order, and is intended to fully supersede and replace the Summary Order and the Interim Agreement.
- 14. Respondents do not admit to the Alleged Violations set forth herein but nonetheless wish to resolve the Alleged Violations without the need for an administrative hearing, thereby avoiding the costs associated with such hearing and any potential appeals, and therefore agree to resolve this matter fully, finally, and completely without an administrative hearing as set forth in this Agreement, and further accept without condition, and fully agree to abide by, each and every term set forth in this Agreement.
- 15. The Agency desires to ensure that Respondents will comply with all applicable statutes, regulations, and others laws governing collection agency activities in the State of Maryland, including complying with MCALA, the MCDCA, and the FDCPA, and further wishes to avoid the costs to the taxpayers of an administrative hearing and any potential appeals.

- 16. Neither this Agreement nor the agreement of the Respondents to make payments to the Agency or to provide restitution as set forth below shall be construed as an admission of liability by the Respondents, but is in compromise and settlement of the Alleged Violations. The Respondents expressly deny any such liability or wrongdoing.
- 17. Respondents represent that, to the best of their knowledge, information, and belief, as of the date of this Agreement they are in compliance with the MCDCA, the FDCPA, and MCALA.
- 18. Respondents have agreed to take each and every one of the following actions in exchange for a final resolution of this matter:
- a. Respondents will pay a total voluntary penalty to the Agency of $1,000,000 (ONE MILLION DOLLARS) in the form of a single check made payable to the "Commissioner of Financial Regulation" immediately upon this Agreement being fully executed.
- b. With regard to pending debt collection cases filed in Maryland district courts on behalf of any of the Respondents named in the Summary Order, Respondents will dismiss without prejudice all cases filed prior to the date of this Agreement. To effectuate these dismissals, Respondents will submit a proposed order, in a form agreed to by the Agency, to the Chief Judge of the District Court of Maryland within 15 days of the date this Agreement is fully executed, and will notify the Agency once this has been completed. Attachment 1 is a spreadsheet listing the names of the affected Maryland consumers, the case numbers to be dismissed, the specific district court in which each case was filed, the name of the plaintiff, and the amount claimed in each complaint. Pursuant to this paragraph, 3,564 cases are being dismissed without prejudice, and the amount claimed in these cases totals $7,770,564.98.

With regard to all debt collection cases filed in Maryland district courts on c. behalf of any of the Respondents named in the Summary Order, pursuant to which a judgment was obtained prior to the date of this Agreement, with the exception of accounts that were sold by Respondents prior to the date of the Summary Order to a party not affiliated with any of the Respondents named in the Summary Order and of consumer claims that are subject to a pending bankruptcy proceeding or were discharged in bankruptcy, Respondents will provide restitution to the consumer defendants by crediting their accounts in an amount equal to the sum of all prejudgment interest and attorney's fees awarded by the court, with the credits being applied to the account balance as of March 12, 2012. If the amount of the credit exceeds the balance remaining on the account as of March 12, 2012, the account shall be considered satisfied in full as of that date. To effectuate these credits, within 15 days of the date this Agreement is fully executed Respondents will both update their internal account records to reflect these credits, and will also submit proposed orders, in a form agreed to by the Agency, to the Chief Judge of the District Court of Maryland as follows: for consumer claims where the total credit exceeds the balance remaining on the consumer's account as of March 12, 2012, Respondents shall submit appropriate orders indicating that the judgments have been satisfied in full; and for cases where the total credit is less than the balance remaining on the consumer's account as of March 12, 2012, Respondents shall submit appropriate orders indicating that the judgments against the Maryland consumers have been satisfied with regard to all prejudgment interest and attorney's fees awarded by the courts. Attachment 2 is a spreadsheet providing the name of each affected Maryland consumer, the applicable court and case number, the name of the plaintiff, the amount of prejudgment interest awarded by the court, the amount of attorney's fees awarded by the court, and the total amount of the credit (consisting of the sum of the prejudgment interest and attorney's fees). There are 5,793 consumers entitled to credits pursuant to this paragraph, and the amount of all such credits totals $3,609,367.74.

- d. With regard to all debt collection cases filed in Maryland district courts on behalf of any of the Respondents named in the Summary Order, in which a settlement upon stipulated terms was reached with the Maryland consumer prior to a judgment being entered by the court, Respondents will provide restitution to the consumer defendants by crediting their accounts the total amount of the settlement that exceeds the amount claimed by the plaintiffs, which is the amount sued for in the case excluding any interest, attorney's fees and court costs, with the credits being applied to the account balance as of March 12, 2012. If the amount of the credit exceeds the balance remaining on the account as of March 12, 2012, the account shall be considered satisfied in full as of that date. Respondents will update their internal account records to reflect these credits within 15 days of the date this Agreement is fully executed. Attachment 3 is a spreadsheet providing the name of each affected Maryland consumer, the applicable court and case number, the name of the plaintiff, and the total amount of the credit. There are 453 consumers entitled to credits pursuant to this paragraph, and the amount of all such credits totals $235,824.72.
- e. The credits referenced in Paragraphs 18.c and 18.d, above, shall be applied as of March 12, 2012, and any payments received after that date shall be applied to reduce the balance on the consumer's account only after the associated credit has been applied.
- f. Respondents will pay administrative expenses incurred by various governmental units totaling $23,567 (TWENTY-THREE THOUSAND FIVE HUNDRED AND SIXTY-SEVEN DOLLARS) by way of separate checks as designated by the Agency immediately upon this Agreement being fully executed.

- g. Respondents will appropriately update the credit reports of the applicable consumers affected by this Agreement as required by the Fair Credit Reporting Act ("FCRA"), 15 U.S.C. § 1681 et seq.
- h. The Respondents shall not seek, and are not entitled to obtain, releases from consumers in conjunction with the restitution discussed herein or otherwise related to this Agreement.
- i. Respondents agree that they are subject to the regulatory authority of the Agency with regard to their consumer collection activities involving Maryland residents.
- j. Respondents will make good faith efforts to ensure that their collection activities in the State of Maryland, including both their traditional and their litigation-related collection activities, fully comply with all applicable statutes, regulations, and other laws governing collection agency activities in the State, including but not limited to MCALA, the MCDCA, and the FDCPA.
- k. Respondents will provide the Agency with an acceleration contact for resolution of Maryland consumer complaints filed with the Agency against Respondents.
- 19. Respondents acknowledge that they have voluntarily entered into this Agreement with full knowledge of their right to a hearing pursuant to FI § 11-518 and the Maryland Administrative Procedure Act Contested Cases (SG § 10-201 et seq.), arising from the Summary Order issued by the Agency based on the Alleged Violations, and that Respondents hereby waive their right to a hearing. Respondents further acknowledge that they have had an opportunity to consult with independent legal counsel in connection with the waiver of this right and with the negotiation and execution of this Agreement, and that they have in fact consulted with independent legal counsel.

- 20. The Parties hereto agree that this Agreement shall be binding upon all Parties and enforceable in a court of competent jurisdiction by the Agency and by Respondents, shall be admissible in court, if relevant, and shall be binding upon and inure to any of the Respondents' present and future owners, principals, directors, officers, members, partners, managers, successors, and assigns.
- 21. The Parties hereto acknowledge that this Agreement does not in any way relate to, impact, or otherwise affect the legal rights of, or preclude the Agency from bringing actions against, persons not Parties to this Agreement, except as set forth in Paragraph 22, below.
- 22. The Agency fully and finally releases, acquits, and forever discharges Respondents, as well as Respondents' predecessors, successors, subsidiaries, affiliates, parents, shareholders, current or former directors, officers, employees, and assigns, from any claim, action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil or administrative, the Agency has for conduct occurring prior to the date that this Agreement is fully executed which relates to the subject matter of the Alleged Violations set forth in the Summary Order.
- 23. The Parties hereto agree that they shall not disparage or otherwise undermine this Agreement in any way.
- 24. The Parties hereto agree that any notices hereunder shall be effectively delivered when sent via overnight delivery or certified mail as follows:

Most Big Debt Collectors Backed Off During the Pandemic. One Pressed Ahead.

Little-known Sherman Financial, which buys defaulted credit-card debt, filed more collection lawsuits after lockdowns began

By Shane Shifflett and Justin Scheck

April 7, 2021 10:03 am ET

When Covid-19 hit the economy, most debt collectors gave borrowers a break, cutting back on lawsuits amid lockdowns, closed courts and loan-forbearance initiatives.

One of the biggest and least-known companies in the industry did the opposite.

Sherman Financial Group filed more lawsuits to squeeze cash from people behind on their credit-card bills. A Wall Street Journal analysis, based on the five state-court districts with searchable online records, showed Sherman had the largest year-over-year increase of any firm identified between last March 15 and Dec. 31—up 52% from the year-earlier period, compared with a 24% decline in those districts for the industry as a whole.

Sherman, a privately held enterprise, through its subsidiaries filed 15,420 more debt-collection lawsuits in those districts than during the year-earlier period. Those courts serve 13% of the U.S. population.

In doing so, Sherman has cemented its reputation as a maverick in the industry. Since founding the company two decades ago, Sherman Chief Executive Ben Navarro has helped transform the once small and fragmented business of collecting old credit-card debt into a multibillion-dollar industry dominated by huge firms.

And while many of his competitors have retrenched during economic downturns, Mr. Navarro has capitalized on them, expanding in the wake of the 2008 financial crisis and bucking industry trends during Covid.

During the pandemic, most of Sherman's largest rivals filed fewer new lawsuits, citing borrower hardship. Two publicly traded competitors, PRA Group

PRAA 0.58% ▲ and Encore Capital Group, ECPG 0.52% ▲ both sued fewer people in 2020 than in 2019, and they limited new collection efforts. California-based Oportun Financial Corp. OPRT -0.47% ▼ suspended new lawsuit filings, dismissed pending cases and capped the interest rate on its loans.

Easing Off

After Covid lockdowns began, many courts closed and debt collectors scaled back their collection efforts.

A spokesman for Sherman and Mr. Navarro, its majority owner, said that while the company has filed more lawsuits during the pandemic than a year earlier, it also owned more debt during that period. In the last nine months of 2020, the spokesman said, Sherman's debt-collection arm, Resurgent, sued a smaller percentage of its debtors than in prior years. The company declined to disclose specifics about the amount of additional debt it holds or the percentage of borrowers it sued.

The Sherman spokesman, David Wells, said the company's pandemic response shouldn't be measured by the number of lawsuits it filed. "In addition to drastically reducing its suit filing rate, Resurgent implemented many consumer-friendly policies during the pandemic."

Suing people who were struggling even before the pandemic may turn out to be a canny move. Government stimulus, breaks on rent and lockdown-driven spending cuts mean many people without much savings now have some cash in the bank. Courts can order banks to take such savings from debtors' accounts and give the money to creditors. Because Sherman discloses little about its financial results or operations, it couldn't be determined how profitable its approach has been.

Sherman, based in Charleston, S.C., got its start buying distressed debts from other firms. Initially, its competitors were small and unable to handle large volumes, while Sherman, backed by big investors, bought large portfolios, using computer systems that made analyzing old loans and collecting on them more efficient and profitable. Over the years, Sherman diversified. It bought a bank that issues high-interest credit cards, often to consumers with weak credit. If customers default, other Sherman entities try to collect.

Mr. Navarro, Sherman's 58-year-old founder, has made a fortune in the business. He and his partners have created a global investment firm whose holdings have included an office park in Ireland, a big chunk of the South Amboy, N.J., waterfront, a window-shade maker and fintech companies that lend money at high interest rates. Many of those holdings are controlled by shell companies.

In 2018, Mr. Navarro made an unsuccessful bid to buy the Carolina Panthers football team, which sold for $2.275 billion. More recently, Mr. Navarro's family office invested $250 million in a private-equity fund focused on oil and gas.

Mr. Navarro, who declined to comment for this article, rarely speaks publicly about the collections business. "I've spent a career trying to be low key and trying to have our company be as low key as possible," he told a group of students three years ago at his alma mater, the University of Rhode Island, according to a video recorded by one attendee.

When consumers stop paying off their cards, the banks that issue them usually send letters and make phone calls attempting to collect. They often give up after 180 days, booking the bad debt as a loss. Then they sell it, often for just a few cents per dollar of debt, leaving the new owner to try to collect.

Debt Boom

As credit-card debt has risen in recent years, so have charge-offs by banks

Unlike with mortgages or car loans, there often is no collateral to seize with a credit-card loan. Collectors call and send letters, hoping borrowers agree to pay a portion of their debt. Lawsuits are the last and most expensive resort.

The number of debt-collection lawsuits filed across the country doubled between 1993 and 2013, according to the Pew Charitable Trusts, and debt claims are now the most common type of civil case in nine of 12 states examined by Pew. The cases frequently end in default judgments letting debt collectors garnish wages or bank accounts to satisfy the debt, plus interest and fees.

Among the people Sherman sued during the pandemic was Shalinda McGregor, 30 years old, who owes $1,372.51 in credit-card debt. She said she had been unable to pay the debt since she quit nursing school and moved to rural Wolcott, N.Y., to care for her father after he had a heart attack.

For the past few years, she worked in an apple-processing plant six nights a week. In the summer when the plant slows, she collects unemployment. She said she defaulted because she could never make enough money to pay off her debts.

Sherman sues only a small percentage of customers who don't resolve their debts during collections efforts, the spokesman said, and offers payment plans or partial debt forgiveness before suing.

Ms. McGregor said she got letters seeking repayment for years before she was sued, which she ignored, assuming they were from scammers. She hasn't responded to Sherman's lawsuit and said she has been out of work since catching Covid in January and intends to file for bankruptcy because of the credit-card debt.

Sherman's lawsuit against Ms. McGregor, filed on Sept. 3, was one of the roughly one million debt-collection lawsuits in 2019 and 2020 in the five jurisdictions analyzed by the Journal—New York, Wisconsin, Maryland, Missouri and Harris County, Texas, which includes Houston.

Of the top 10 filers of debt-collection lawsuits in those jurisdictions in 2020, eight, including well-known lenders such as Bank of America Corp. BAC 0.73% A and Capital One Financial Corp. COF 1.08% A, filed the same amount or fewer lawsuits during the pandemic than a year earlier. Citigroup Inc. C 0.12% A notched an increase.

"The modest, single-digit year-over-year percentage increase in collections litigation nationally is largely the result of cases that predate the pandemic by months," a Citigroup spokeswoman said.

In 2020, Sherman-owned companies filed 12% of the debt lawsuits in those jurisdictions, up from 6% a year earlier.

Sherman's spokesman said the company bought 60% more debt in 2019 than in the prior year, so that when the pandemic hit, it held more debts over which to potentially sue people. Nationally, he said, Sherman spent millions of dollars less on lawsuit fees during 2020 than its two largest publicly traded competitors, which he said indicated Sherman filed fewer lawsuits than those rivals countrywide. None of the companies disclose how many suits they file.

Have you had any experience with debtcollection companies? Join the conversation below. Sherman has previously succeeded amid times of economic hardship by harnessing technology and data in its collection efforts. In 2009, Sherman's revenue hit $1.2 billion, allowing Mr. Navarro and his partners to buy out the company's longtime investors, two insurance companies that needed to boost capital, and take the company private.

"We not just survived, but thrived," Mr. Navarro later said to the Rhode Island college students. He played a clip from the film "It's A Wonderful Life" in which the customers of George Bailey's building-and-loan company demand to withdraw their money amid a bank run as banker Henry Potter tries to drive it out of business.

"The only bad news," Mr. Navarro told the students, "is that I was Potter. I'm not sure what that says about me, but anyway we were able to make the most of the financial crisis."

The Sherman spokesman said Mr. Navarro's whole speech was intended to show students how they could succeed "by focusing on humility, kindness and preparation."

Mr. Navarro told the students he started Sherman, which he named after his dog, in 1998 in a one-bedroom apartment with a fax machine and newborn baby. He had been co-head of mortgage sales and trading at Citigroup when he decided that no one had brought basic technology to the business of collecting bad consumer loans.

"Collections were done on pencil and paper and note cards, and physical note card files in much of the industry," said Tim Grant, an early employee who would become a senior executive before leaving Sherman a few years ago. Big credit-card issuers sold old debts for pennies on the dollar into an informal marketplace full of brokers—a business that has been plagued by consumer complaints and regulatory scrutiny.

"Sherman was most definitely trying very, very hard to be a white knight in what had been a somewhat dirty business," Mr. Grant said.

Mr. Navarro wanted to use computer programs to estimate the profitability of debt portfolios. He assembled a 100-person information-technology staff, hired people with front-office experience and integrated the company's various business units so they could handle bigger volumes and different types of debt, according to a 2006 report to investors.

To get Sherman off the ground, Mr. Navarro sold 91% of the firm for $40 million to two insurance firms. "They had phenomenal analytics," said Daniel Gross, the former CEO of one of the firms, Enhance Financial Services Inc.

Sherman grew quickly as wages for many working and middle-class consumers stagnated and they turned to more widely available credit. Between 2001 and 2020, consumer credit-card debt grew by 37% to $819 billion, according to New York Fed data, and credit-card debt sold by banks increased by 87%, Federal Reserve data show.

In some cases, Sherman admitted to suing the wrong people. Other times, it attempted to collect debts so old they were no longer legally collectible, court records show.

The company said identity theft can lead to suing the wrong people, and Resurgent takes steps to detect and remedy cases of mistaken identity, the spokesman said.

Between Sherman's inception and September 2006, its companies recovered more than $3.8 billion in old debts, it said in a 2006 presentation. Between 2005 and 2009, before the company was taken private and data became unavailable, Sherman was the nation's biggest buyer of defaulted credit-card debt, according to the Nilson Report, a credit-industry analysis firm.

In 2005, Sherman bought a small bank, rebranded it Credit One, and increased the business from $647 million in outstanding credit-card receivables in 2006 to $6.81 billion in 2020, the most recent reported figure, according to Nilson Report. Credit One was the seventh-largest credit-card provider in 2020, ranked by active accounts.

Between 2011 and 2020, the bank was the subject of 13,500 consumer complaints filed to the federal Consumer Financial Protection Bureau over late fees and delays in processing payments that generate late fees, according to a Journal analysis of federal records made public via a public-records request.

Credit One received the most complaints of any firm with less than $10 billion in assets supervised by the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, a federal banking regulator, and the ninth-most complaints about financial products of the largest credit-card issuers ranked by outstanding loans.

"The level of complaints is representative of an institution of our size," Sherman's spokesman said. "We work hard to address all customer complaints, and our goal is to have as few as possible."

Since Mr. Navarro's group took full control of the company, there has been little publicly available information about Sherman's activities. Court records, some of the only public documents, show that Sherman filed thousands of lawsuits against borrowers, leading to some problems with authorities.

In 2011, Maryland sued Sherman's primary debt-collection subsidiaries, alleging they flooded courts with cases but were unlicensed to collect there. Sherman suits "contained false, deceptive, or deficient complaints and supporting affidavits," state regulators wrote. In a 2012 settlement, without admitting wrongdoing, Sherman paid a $1 million penalty and gave credits worth about $3.8 million to Maryland consumers.

In 2014, the New York attorney general later said, Sherman collected from at least 400 borrowers whose debts weren't legally collectible. Sherman paid a $175,000 fine for those violations. In September, the New Mexico attorney general sued Sherman, alleging it undertook illegal collections practices. The Sherman spokesman declined to comment because the lawsuit is pending.

The spokesman said the CFPB has never taken an enforcement action relating to debt collection against Sherman's debt-collection companies, and in 2020 those companies underwent 54 regularly scheduled regulatory examinations and a Covid-specific assessment with zero violations.

Laws regulating collection efforts vary. Some states, including Kentucky, allow debt collectors to seize nearly everything a debtor owns. Last year, Carol Bradley, 78-year-old retiree who lives on the outskirts of Louisville, filed for bankruptcy after a Sherman subsidiary emptied her bank account to collect on a 15-year-old debt.

Sherman had acquired a $12,008 debt that Ms. Bradley had defaulted on in 2006. Sherman later sued Ms. Bradley, and a judge in 2011 awarded Sherman a default judgment, allowing it to force her bank to pull money from her account.

Sherman didn't act on that judgment until last year, the Sherman spokesman said, when the company's computer models determined Ms. Bradley had money to pay. In May, Sherman used a garnishment order to compel her bank to transfer her balance of $6,770.78 to Sherman.

Ms. Bradley, who declined to comment, lives on a fixed income, court records show. Bankruptcy laws enable debtors to seek the return of garnishments filed immediately before a bankruptcy. Ms. Bradley did so, and Sherman settled the matter by returning the money.
